International Youth Friendship Camp, Shanghai

Each July the Shanghai People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries and the Shanghai Youth Federation sponsor an International Youth Interactive Friendship Camp. Young people from more than 20 countries spend ten joyful days together in the camp. They will have the chance to experience Chinese culture as well as interacting with young people of many different nationalities and ethnicities. The camp usually includes one-day homestay with local volunteer families will give these young people exposure to the customs of Shanghainese.

The aim of the camp is to encourage young people all over the world to become goodwill ambassadors and leverage the wisdom of youth for world peace and friendship.

Since its launch in 2005, the camp has attracted over 900 youngsters from nearly 50 countries and regions and has been well recognized for its features of "Joy, Interaction, Friendship, Ambassador". The Camp has played an instrumental role in deepening mutual understanding and exchange between young people in Shanghai and other countries.

The Australia China Friendship Society (ACFS) is an organisation which has been working for more than 60 years to develop friendship and understanding between the peoples of Australia and China. Our National committee assist the Shanghai Youth camp by choosing the five (5) Australian students from 15 to 17 years of age to attend the camp, with an appropriate chaperone.

We encourage you to advertise this unique opportunity and we trust that students from around Australia will apply to attend the camp. You can download the detailed information brochure, rules of the camp, and camp program from our ACFS website, www.acfs.com.au

Our ACFS Tours Secretary Pat O'Riley will be coordinating the selection of applicants and chaperones. Please contact her for more details on acfssatours@gmail.com
