

- Led by world renowned expert on ethnic minorities Professor Colin Mackerras AO.
- Partake in the local festivities of the Dong and Miao minorities
- Visit tea plantations, limestone caves and a cruise down Li River
- Learn how to make embroidered shoes, traditional paper cuts, silver ornaments and other local crafts

For details, visit www.acfs.com.au/2018-minority-tour or email our Tour Secretary Roz Hanley at hanley@inet.net.au

Tour application closes 30 November 2017.

Tour dates

22 April to 04 May 2018
13 days

Visit Guangzhou, Guilin, Yangshuo, Longsheng, Sanjiang, Zhaoxing, Kaili

About the Tour Leader

Prof. Mackerras has worked at Griffith University for over forty years and has visited China for purposes of teaching, researching, attending conferences and touring, nearly 70 times. He has written widely on several aspects of China, including the ethnic minorities. He won a Friendship Award in 2014, and in 2015 a Special China Book Award, given to foreigners who have made outstanding contributions in spreading Chinese culture through their writings.

